ABOUT ME

I am Amanda Delfo, a professional singer based in Barcelona. My career is defined by a versatility that allows me to navigate between Pop, Rock, Soul, and Disco, tailoring every performance to the event's atmosphere, whether it is an intimate cocktail party or a large celebration.

I have performed in cities such as New York, London, and Venice, and I have worked in studio environments recording backing vocals for shows like "Tu cara me suena" and appearing on programs like "Late Motiv." From iconic venues like Casa Batlló, Teatro Real and Santiago Bernabeu stadium to corporate events and exclusive weddings, my focus is always on musical quality. Currently, I balance my solo performances with an ABBA Tribute.
